

“A week long National Workshop” Organized by Department of Geography

A week long workshop was organized by Department of Geography, Namchi Government College sponsored by RUSA and HRDD on the theme “Application of Geospatial Technologies in Human and Earth Sciences with special reference to Geographical Information System (GIS), Global Positioning System and Remote Sensing (RS)” from 24th September to 30th September, 2018. The inaugural ceremony was on 24th September, 2018 and was attended by the key note speaker Prof. R.K Pande (Head, Department of Geography, Kumaon University), Principal of the College, Dean of Student affairs, Vice Principal, Faculty members from different department, students of geography and other department, non- teaching staff and other participants.

From 25th to 29th September 2018, the workshop was purely technical based on GIS, GPS and Remote Sensing for student of Vth Semester Geography Honors and the sessions was taken by Prof. R.K. Pande, Mr. DilliRam Chettri, Dr.E. Ishwarjit, Assistant Professor, Sikkim University, Mr. Bhaichung Lepcha and Mr. Binay Pradhan from Dept. of Science and Technology, Government of Sikkim. The last day i.e 30th September.

The last day i.e. 30th September, 2018 was the valedictory session and was graced by Dr. Sohel Firdos (Associate Professor, Sikkim University), Principal Namchi Government College, Vice Principal, students and other faculty member of the college.

